Damages Because of False Arrest.

INDIANA MAN'S COMPLAINT.

FERDINAND WANTS TO BE REAL TOWN.

VOTERS ALL DEMOCRATIC.

Suit has been filed in the Washington Circuit Court at Salem, thirty miles north of New Albany, by Augustus G. Martin against the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville Railway Company (the Monon) to recover $10,000 damages for alleged illegal arrest. In his complaint Martin alleges that on November 18, 1904, the defendant company caused him to be arrested on a warrant charging him with being accessory before the fact to a felony, alleged to have been committed by William A. Russell, which consisted in Russell having placed, it is alleged, an obstruction on the railway track near Salem.

He further alleges that he was compelled to give bond for his appearance to answer in a Magistrate's court. After appearing twice in court the case was dismissed on account of the failure of the defendant to appear and prosecute. He was, he avers, greatly damaged in his reputation and good name by being arrested and deprived of his liberty and compelled to give bond as a common malefactor and was also subjected to loss of time and forced to incur expense in employing counsel to defend him. The case will be tried at the term of the Washington Circuit Court, which begins next week.

Makes Plea of Self-Defense.

In the Floyd County Court at New Albany to-morrow the trial of the case of the State of Indiana against Lawrence Hubbar for the murder of Nelson Jordan will be resumed. Hubbar, who is defended by Charles D. Keiser and Charles W. Schindler, while the State will be represented by George B. McIntyre, the circuit prosecutor. Hubbar declares that he acted in self-defense. Nelson Jordan, the dead man, and Lawrence Hubbar, the murderer, were attending an exhibition given at No. 9 schoolhouse, in the French settlement, the Sunday night, three miles south of New Albany, last May. They became involved in a quarrel about some trivial matter in the room and went outside, followed by a crowd, to settle the matter. In the mixup that resulted Hubbar stabbed the other with a knife, killing him. Hubbar was indicted by the grand jury of the Floyd Circuit Court for murder in the first degree, and he has been confined in the county jail at New Albany since the murder.

Ferdinand's Aspirations.

The Board of Commissioners of Dubois county have under consideration a petition for the incorporation of the town of Ferdinand, a prosperous little community in the southern end of the county, and about sixty miles west of New Albany. The petition filed represents that within the past few years the number of the new town there are 125 voters and it has a population of 721. Every voter in the town is a Democrat except the mayor, who has a difficulty whatever in holding the job under a Republican administration. The matter will be decided by the commissioners December 26.

IN JAIL

In Default of Bond For Embezzlement.

WILLIAM LINDLEY ACCUSED.

ANDERSON FAMILY WILL TAKE HOUSE ALONG.

SAD DEATH IN QUANTINITY.

William Lindley, formerly of Jeffersonville, but more recently of Madison, Ind., is under arrest at Frankfort, Ind., on the charge of embezzlement and went to jail in default of $1,000 bond.

His brother is John Lindley, formerly of Frankfort, Ind., who is now in the custody of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis railway, with headquarters at Louisville. When Harry J. Miller went to the Vandallia John Lindley was with him and secured a position for his brother as agent at Frankfort.

It is claimed that while he was employed at Frankfort William Lindley became short in his accounts to the extent of $1,710. This was several months ago and he disappeared, but returned to Frankfort later. He admitted his shortage and the amount was paid by his surety, the American Surety Company, of New York, but there was trouble between Lindley and the surety company. Lindley claimed the company told him he could take his time about paying while the company says he made no effort to pay and refused to do so.

From Frankfort Lindley went to Gen. Wood, who is now in the custody of the Missouri Pacific railway and was on the eve of going to Kansas City, where he was promoted. The arrest was made on a complaint filed by Manager Hartshorn, of the Chicago branch of the surety company, and Sheriff Connor, of Clinton county, Indiana, went after him, Lindley coming without a resistance.

A regular fact in the arrest was that Lindley practically turned himself up to the world. He was a well-known man in the city and was a telegraph operator and while in this capacity a message came from the town marshal asking if Lindley could be located. Lindley not only took the message, but also answered, signing his name as W. C. Lindley, and he was found. Had he so desired he could have been in the hands of the officers of the Missouri Pacific railway, but he chose to be arrested.

WILL TAKE HOUSE ALONG.

Anderson Family Will Raise No Further Protest.

The Louisville and Southern Indiana Traction Company and the Anderson family have come to an amicable agreement regarding the vacating of the latter's house on Mulberry street in Jeffersonville. The company wanting the house for its use, the Andersons, who have lived there for many years, have agreed to move on the ground that his wife was blind and if she went into a new house she could not get around.

A writ of assistance was secured and Sheriff Perrett went to the house to put the family out, but was balked by the refusal of the Andersons to leave. The matter was taken to court and the court decided in favor of the company. The Andersons have agreed to move on the ground that his wife was blind and if she went into a new house she could not get around.

CONDUCTOR ON STREET CAR

SUSTAINED ON TRIAL IN JUDGE FIELD'S COURT.

PETITION FOR BIG DAMAGES.

Mary Franklin, colored, who sued the Louisville Railway Company on a claim for $1,000 damages, was denied recovery in Judge Field's court yesterday. The woman got on a car at Twenty-eighth and Kentucky streets last June when a bundle of washing she tendered a twenty-five cent piece, which to the conductor had a suspicious appearance. He described it as having been chopped with a hatchet. The conductor refused the money and woman would give him no other. He then put off her washing and also forced her to leave the car. The woman got on the next car and tendered the same quarter to the conductor, who accepted it, although the woman produced further change and asked the conductor to let her brother, Joseph Hoskins, who was with her, see the conductor. The conductor refused to let her brother see her, and she was forced to get off the car. She then went to the home of her brother, who was with her, and she was forced to get off the car. She then went to the home of her brother, who was with her, and she was forced to get off the car.

Damages Sought Against Railroad. Grace Hoskins, in the name of her father, Joseph Hoskins, sued the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company for $10,000 damages on account of personal injuries sustained by her brother, Henry Hoskins, who was with her, and she was forced to get off the car. She then went to the home of her brother, who was with her, and she was forced to get off the car. She then went to the home of her brother, who was with her, and she was forced to get off the car.

COLORED WHISKY

SEIZED BY REVENUE AGENTS OF FIFTH DISTRICT.

Dr. A. D. James Arrests Man Wanted In Owensboro—Rufus Gray Bankrupt.

Whisky adulterated by coloring matter has been seized by the internal revenue department of the Fifth district and the cases reported to the department at Washington, but the collector and the revenue agent are withholding the names of the firms which were found with the colored whisky.

"Seizures have been made this month, as they are always being made," said J. A. Craft, the collector of internal revenue, yesterday. "The department is making seizures all the time, but unless we should make public the names of the firms that we find selling adulterated or colored whisky. One would not care to buy from a firm which colored its whisky and sold it as the pure article. During this month we have made about the usual number of seizures, and none of them have been bigger than usual or involving anything out of the ordinary."

The manner of adulterating whisky by coloring matter is to take a barrel of fine whisky, add raw spirits and a coloring matter which increases the quantity largely without changing the appearance of the liquor. In Cincinnati and other cities many seizures have been made, and fines have been imposed by compromises amounting to from $1,000 to $5,000.

DR. JAMES MAKES ARREST.

Tom Richardson Taken In Custody At Union Depot.

Tom Richardson, indicted by the Federal grand jury at Owensboro on a charge of retaining whisky without a Government license, was arrested yesterday morning at the Union depot by Dr. A. D. James, United States Marshal, and taken to the city jail. Richardson is charged with selling whisky at a small town in Hardin county. He could not give bond and was locked up in the county jail. Dr. James learned that Richardson was in Louisville yesterday at one of the small hotels. He went there and found that the man had paid his bill and was about to leave town. Dr. James then went to the depot and arrested Richardson as he was about to board a train. Richardson is being held for trial.

Cannot Pay His Debts.

Rufus Gray, of Rocky Hill, Barren county, filed a petition in bankruptcy yesterday afternoon in the United States District Court. His liabilities are given at $2,946 and his assets at $1,755. The chief creditor being H. C. Staples, of Oil City, to whom he owes $1,400. The cause of the bankruptcy petition is that Gray, who was a general merchant, became involved and could not pay his debts.

PRESBYTERIAN ORPHANAGE.

A Good Start Made In Paying Off Its Indebtedness.

A joint meeting of the Board of Trustees and the Board of Lady Directors of the Louisville Presbyterian Orphanage was held last night at the First Presbyterian church, the meeting presided over by the newly elected president of the Board of Trustees, Mr. J. Litrow Smith.

A general review of the work and conditions of the society was discussed, and the bonded debt, which has existed for almost, if not a quarter of a century, was very much deplored, and an earnest desire was expressed to liquidate it as soon as possible. By a unanimous vote Mr. George G. Brown, who was for ten years president of the society, was elected a committee of one, with authority to associate with him such others as he might desire for the purpose of raising $10,000 to be used in payment of the old debt of the society. The conditions of the subscription are to be that fully $10,000 shall be subscribed by the last day of January, 1906, before they become binding, and that the same shall be payable in six and twelve months thereafter.

Mr. Brown has this far appointed on this committee: Judge Shackelford, Miller, Mr. S. C. C. McGowan, all of Louisville, together with Miss Margaret Shaw, Anchorage; Judge J. P. Hobson, Frankfort; the Rev. E. Smith, D. D., Owensboro; Mr. Charles Leitch, Paducah; and Mr. W. L. McAtee, Vandalia, Ky.

In order to show their earnestness in this movement, a subscription was immediately taken up, amounting to $2,300, and it is hoped that the committee will soon be able to raise the amount desired.

Notwithstanding the heavy debt this society has labored under for so many years, it has never failed to take good care of as many homeless children as its capacity would permit.

MATURE

L. and N. Plans For Big Local Office.

A TEN-STORY STRUCTURE

TO BE ERECTED AT TENTH AND BROADWAY.

STEEL, BRICK AND STONE.

From admissions made by L. and N. officials yesterday, it is now almost certain that the air castle which has been in the course of construction for many years, and which was to be occupied by the local offices of that railroad, will in the near future become a solid, substantial structure of stone and steel. The few of the L. and N. officials who would discuss the project at all admitted that certain definite steps toward the realization of this long-dormant plan have been taken recently, and that plans have been at least partially prepared. The proposed building is to be ten stories in height instead of eight, as originally planned some years ago, and will probably be located at Ninth street and Broadway.

Further than this, it is understood that the building will be so constructed that at any time it will be possible, without great inconvenience, to add three or four additional floors, giving to Louisville a modern office building surpassing anything now here. The need for other quarters has long been felt by the L. and N., it having been necessary from time to time to secure additional space by leasing rooms in blocks adjoining the property now owned and occupied by the railroad at Second and Main streets. Although it could not be absolutely confirmed in the office of the chief engineer, it is almost a certainty that plans for the skyscraper are already under way, and will be completed, so that the actual work of construction may be begun in the spring. The building would be ready for occupancy within one year from that time.

Plan of Many Years.

Behind the apparently successful outcome of this favorite project of the L. and N. is the story of other efforts in the same direction made years ago. Before the panic of 1893 swept the country, practically this same project was fully outlined, only that the proposed building was to have been but eight stories in height. In addition, it was planned that all the employees stationed at the First-street station would be quartered in the new building, and with the erection of a station at Baxter avenue for the convenience of commuters, all the Lexington and Frankfort trains of the L. and N. would run south through the city into the Union station at Tenth and Broadway. But one thing prior to the panic prevented the fulfillment of this plan, and that was the Prospect line, which was then operated by the L. and N. This line was, and is, valuable as an entrance to Louisville, and the L. and N. did not wish to take any chances with it, fearing that some other railroad might secure it. This, coupled with the panic, caused the project of a new office building to be dropped. At times since then it has been brought up in a desultory sort of way, and with the pressing need of other quarters, and the satisfactory disposition of the Prospect line by lease to the Louisville Railway Company, nothing now stands in the way of carrying the project through to completion.

COMMISSION STORE DAMAGED BY FIRE.

Blaze In Business House of G. D. Willis At Thirteenth and Jefferson Streets.

The commission store of G. D. Willis, at 1226 West Jefferson street, was badly damaged by fire shortly after noon yesterday. The store is a two-story brick building, the first floor for his business, while Andrew Keller and Mrs. Jesse Dossbach rent apartments on the upper floors. The fire started on the first floor and an alarm was sounded from box 733 at 12:37 o'clock. The flames had a good start when the engines arrived, and it was by hard work that the firemen confined the blaze to the lower floor. The stock consisted of coops of chickens, turkeys and other produce, and practically all was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $1,000.

NEW EFFORT

To Stop Use of Distillery Still.

THREE WARRANTS ISSUED.

ATTORNEYS ARE EMPLOYED TO FIGHT FOR DEFENDANTS.

H. L. STONE RETIRES TO-DAY.

Three warrants against milk dealers charging them with selling milk which was taken from cows fed on swill from a distillery were sworn out yesterday before Judge James P. Gregory by Dr. M. K. Allen, the City Health Officer, and Dr. R. W. Smock, the County Health Officer. The following dealers have been summoned to appear in the County Court to-day to answer the charge: Steve Bisk, Work House road; Ottmar Kaestlin, Work House road; and W. F. Lesshoff, Poplar Level road. It is understood that the cases will be heard fought in all the courts and that attorneys have been employed by the milk dealers all over the county who have been feeding this distillery swill to their dairy cattle.

These three warrants are said to be but the first of a large number which will be issued by the City and County Health officers in an effort to stop the practice of feeding swill, which they are shown to be injurious to the animals eating it and to the milk. The warrants are the first which have been issued since the recent decision of the Court of Appeals when the law against the selling of milk from swill-fed cattle was upheld. Dr. Allen has fought against the practice for some time. When the law was first passed he took warrants against several milk dealers. The cases were tried in the Criminal Court of Jefferson county, and the law was upheld. An appeal was taken and the higher court sustained the verdict given in the lower court. In spite of this decision certain milk dealers continued to feed the swill. It is alleged.

An iron-clad agreement between the City and County Health officers and the milk dealers binding the latter not to feed swill to dairy cattle, was drawn up last May by Dr. Allen. It bound the officials not to prosecute for any offenses which were committed prior to the closing of the distilleries last June, and in consideration of being allowed this extra time the dealers agreed to discontinue feeding swill after June 1. This was signed by 110 milk dealers and dalymen. Some of the dealers have kept their word, but others have not, and it is against these that the warrants are to be issued.

"I am in this fight for the whole time and will not let up until I have stopped the feeding of this filthy swill," said Dr. Allen yesterday. "It is against the law and I intend to see that the law is enforced against any and all dealers."

CHANGE CITY ATTORNEYS.

H. L. Stone Retires and A. E. Richards Goes In To-day.

Henry L. Stone, who has been City Attorney for the past eight years, will retire to-day, and his successor, Judge A. E. Richards, will assume the duties of the office. Mr. Stone has been preparing for the change for the past two weeks and has moved all of his law books and other office furniture so as to make room for his successor. Judge Richards will begin moving his books to-day and will be in charge from this morning. His assistants will also begin their new work to-day. Mr. Stone will be in and out of the City Attorney's office for the next few days assisting Judge Richards in becoming familiar with the duties of the office and the litigation which is pending. Judge N. R. Beckenbaugh, the Assistant City Attorney, will also to-day, but he will be kept busy for the next two weeks going over with the new assistant attorney the details of the large number of cases against the city which are awaiting trial.

WITHDRAW APPLICATIONS.

Protests Against West End Saloons Too Strong.

Applications from J. Heuen, who wanted to open a saloon at 1800 Dunes, all street, and R. J. Cope, who wanted a license for a saloon at 2100 West Walnut street, were withdrawn yesterday by permission of the License Board, and the cases, which were set for a hearing to-morrow afternoon, will not be called. The residents of the neighborhood in which the saloons were to be located protested vigorously against them, and in each case a majority of the registered voters in the precinct signed the remonstrance. The board has held that where the majority of the registered voters sign the protest the license will be refused, without any evidence being presented.

C. C. Roe Resigns.

C. C. Roe, an assistant City Engineer, resigned his position yesterday to take effect to-day. He was devoted to the practice of law. The position has not been filled as yet. The position pays $1,500.

Patrolman Appointed.

W. O. Dannelia was appointed a patrolman yesterday by the Board of Public Safety. He comes to the city with an excellent record.

WORKHOUSE TERM

OF SIX MONTHS GIVEN WILLIAM SNIDER.

Made Two Attempts Upon Life of J. R. Kirwan and Threatened the Police.

William Snider, a saw filer, formerly employed by Joseph R. Kirwan, a saw-mill operator on the Point, was yesterday given six months in the Workhouse when tried on the charge of having attempted assault and shot at without wounding Mr. Kirwan. The trouble occurred last September, soon after Snider was discharged from his position at the sawmill, on account of drunkenness.

According to the evidence produced by the Commonwealth, Mr. Kirwan was sitting in front of his office talking with another employe when Snider approached. When the other man left, Snider is said to have gone up close to his former employer and informed him in an impressive tone that he was going to kill himself. Mr. Kirwan said that the defendant then added: "When I die I will not be the only one to go." With that Snider is said to have drawn his pistol and aimed it at Kirwan. After a desperate struggle Mr. Kirwan and one of his clerks succeeded in disarming Snider. He was then advised to go on about his business. Soon afterward, Snider appeared in the distance with a Winchester repeating shotgun on his shoulder. Some one in the office warned Mr. Kirwan, who fled out the back way but not soon enough to keep Snider from getting a shot at him as he ran. Later the police surrounded Snider and he took refuge in a shanty boat and remained there for more than an hour. He appeared at the door and began to threaten the officers with his Winchester. Lieut. James Kimmarly, who headed the detail, and several other officers ran toward him to get him out of the way of Snider's fire. He did not shoot, however, and disappeared up the river road, where he hid among the weeds. Later he was taken into custody. Snider's defense consisted in the claim that he intended no harm to Mr. Kirwan, that his pistol went off by accident and that he was merely drunk and making a bluff.
